(2) Every Member of the State Council shall be his own controlling officer in respect of his bills relating to travelling allowances and daily allowances.

(3) The members of the State Council shall be entitled to a sitting fee of Rs. 2,000/- (Rupees two thousand only), for each day or part of the day of the sitting of the State Council or as decided by the State Council from time to time.

6. Time and place of the meetings of the State Council.— (1) The time and place of the meetings of the State Council shall be decided by the Chairperson.

(2) The Chairperson may also call a special meeting at any time after giving three days notice to deal with any urgent matter requiring the attention of the State Council:

Provided that at a special meeting, the subject or subjects for the consideration of which the meeting has been called shall only be discussed.

7. Notice of meetings and agenda paper.— (1) Notice of every meeting other than a special meeting, shall be dispatched by the Secretary to each member of the State Council not less than fifteen days before the date of the meeting.

(2) The Secretary shall issue with the notice of the meeting a preliminary agenda paper showing the business to be brought before the meeting, the terms of all motions to be moved of which notice in writing has previously reached him and the names of the movers.

(3) A member who wishes to move any motion not included in the preliminary agenda paper or an amendment to any motion so included shall give notice to the Secretary not less than five clear days before the date fixed for the meeting.

(4) The Secretary shall, not less than ten clear days before the date fixed for the meeting, or in the case of a special meeting, with the notice of the meeting, issue a complete agenda paper showing the business to be brought before the meeting.

(5) A member who wishes to move an amendment to any motion included in the agenda paper, but not included in the preliminary agenda paper shall give notice thereof to the Secretary not less than three clear days before the date fixed for the meeting.

(6) The Secretary shall cause a list of all amendments of which notice has been given under sub-rule (5) to be made available for the use of every member:

Provided that the Chairperson may, if the State Council agrees, for reasons to be recorded in writing, allow a motion to be moved at a meeting notwithstanding the fact that notice thereof was received late to admit of compliance with this rule.

8. Admissibility of motion.— (1) The Chairperson shall disallow any motion,—

(a) if the matter to which it relates, is not within the scope of the State Council's functions;

(b) if it raises substantially the same question as a motion or amendment which has been moved or withdrawn with the leave of the State Council at any time during the six months immediately preceding the date of the meeting at which it is designed to be moved:

Provided that such a motion may be admitted at a special meeting of the State Council convened for the purpose on the requisition of not less than two-thirds of the members of the State Council:

Provided further that nothing in these rules shall operate to prohibit discussion of any matter referred to the State Council by the State Government in the exercise of any of its functions under the Act:

(c) unless it is clearly and precisely expressed and raises substantially one definite issue;

(d) if it contains arguments, inferences, ironical expressions, imputations or defamatory statements:

Provided that if a motion can be rendered admissible by amendment, the Chairperson may, in lieu of disallowing the motion, admit it in the amended form.

(2) When the Chairperson disallows any motion, the Secretary shall inform the concerned member stating the reasons for rejection thereof.

9. Adjournment for want of quorum.— The quorum of the meeting shall be one-half of the total members of the State Council including the Chairperson. If, at any time appointed for a meeting or during the course of any meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting shall be adjourned, and if a quorum is not present, on the expiration of thirty minutes from such adjournment, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such future date and time as the Chairperson of the State Council may appoint. Quorum for special meeting shall be one-third of the total members of the State Council, including the Chairperson.

10. Conduct of business.— (1) Every matter raised by a member shall be determined on a motion moved by the member duly seconded and put to the State Council by the Chairperson.

(2) When a motion has been moved and seconded and put to the State Council by the Chairperson, it may be discussed as a question to be resolved either in the affirmative or in the negative or any member may, subject to rule move an amendment to the motion:

Provided that the Chairperson shall not allow an amendment to be moved which, if it had been a substantive motion, would have been inadmissible considering is beyond the scope of functions of the State Council.

(3) Any motion or amendment standing in the name of a member who is absent from the meeting may be brought forward by another member with the permission of the Chairperson.

11. Amendment to motions.— When an amendment to any motion is moved and seconded or when two or more such amendments are moved and seconded, the Chairperson shall state or read to the State Council the terms of the original motion and of the amendment or amendments proposed serially.

12. Identical motions.— When motions identical in purport stand in the name of two or more members, the Chairperson shall decide whose motion shall be moved and the other motion or motions shall thereupon be deemed to be withdrawn.

13. Scope of Amendments.— (1) An Amendment shall be relevant to, and within the scope of, the motion to which it is proposed.

(2) An amendment may not be moved that negates the original motion.

(3) The Chairperson may refuse to put to the State Council an amendment which in his opinion is not relevant to the motion.

14. Form of Amendments.— A motion may be amended by,—

(a) the omission, insertion or addition of words, or

(b) the substitution of words for any of the original words.

15. Debate.— (1) When a motion or amendment is under debate, no proposal with reference thereto shall be made other than,—

(a) an amendment of the motion or of the amendment as the case may be, as proposed in rule 11.

(b) a motion for the adjournment of the debate on the motion or amendment either to a specified date and hour or sine die;

(c) a motion for the closure, namely a motion that the question be now put;

(d) a motion that the State Council instead of proceeding to deal with the motion do pass to the next item on the programme of business:

Provided that no motion of the nature shall be moved or seconded by a member who has already spoken to the question then before the meeting:

Provided further that a motion referred for closure or passage to next item shall be moved without any speech.

(2) It shall be the discretion of the Chairperson to accept or refuse a proposal for the adjournment of the debate on the motion or amendment.

(3) Upon accepting the closure motion, the Chairperson shall put the substantive motion or amendment to vote after allowing the mover the right to reply.

16. Withdrawal of motion.— A motion or an amendment which has been moved and seconded shall not be withdrawn save with the leave of the State Council which shall not be deemed to be granted, if any member dissents from the granting of leave.

17. Discussions by members.— When a motion has been moved and seconded, members other than the mover and the seconder may speak on the motion in such order as the Chairperson may direct:

Provided that the seconder of a motion or of an amendment may, with the permission of the Chairperson, confine himself to seconding the motion or amendment, as the case may be, and speak thereon at any subsequent stage of the debate.

18. Right of reply of the mover.— The mover of a motion and, if permitted by the Chairperson, the mover of any amendment, shall be entitled to a right of final reply and no other member shall speak more than once to any debate except with the permission of the Chairperson, for the purpose of making a personal explanation or of putting a question to the member then addressing the State Council:

Provided that a member may at any stage of the debate may raise a point of order substantially incorporating therein a point of law, or statutory procedure, but shall not be allowed to make any speech:

Provided further that a member who has spoken on a motion may speak again on an amendment subsequently moved to the motion.
